Group Short Term Disability Insurance

Protect your income if you're out on leave.

Your health insurance may help pay medical bills. Short Term Disability insurance pays you. It can replace part of your paycheck if you can't work due to a qualifying disability.

Disability insurance may help protect your income if you're unable to work.

Short Term Disability insurance can help pay benefits if you become disabled and can't work for a short amount of time.

This coverage replaces a portion of your income when you can't work because of a qualifying disability, including injury, physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder.

You may receive weekly benefits that replace a specified percentage of your eligible earnings. Benefits begin after the benefit waiting period.

You may also receive help returning to work if you need accommodations.

Even if you're healthy now, it's important to protect yourself and the people who count on your income. If you can't work, Short Term Disability insurance may help you pay for ongoing expenses, such as:

Housing Costs

Groceries

Car Insurance

Child Care

*For purposes of coverage information provided in the Group Short Term Disability Insurance Coverage Highlights, "Fisher Investments" means "Fisher Asset Management, LLC," who is the policyholder.

Short Term Disability Insurance

What Your Benefit Provides

This is the benefit you'd receive if you suffer a qualifying disability. Eligible earnings are your weekly insured predisability earnings, as defined by the group policy. Your benefit amount will be reduced by deductible income; see the Important Details section for a list of deductible income sources.

60% of your insured predisability earnings

Plan maximum per week: $2,309

Plan minimum per week: $15

Benefit Waiting Period

If you suffer a qualifying disability, your benefit waiting period is the length of time you must be continuously disabled before you can begin receiving your weekly benefit.

- 7 days for accidental injury
- 7 days for physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder

Extended Benefit Waiting Period

This applies if you do not apply for this coverage within 31 days of becoming eligible, were eligible for coverage under a prior plan for more than 31 days but were not insured or if your insurance ends because you failed to pay your premium and is later reinstated.

Your benefit waiting period is 60 days for any qualifying disability caused by physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder occurring during the first 12 months of coverage.

How Long Your Benefits Last

This is the maximum length of time you could be eligible to receive a weekly disability benefit.

90 days

See the Important Details section for more information, including requirements, exclusions, limitations and definitions.

Additional Features

Return to Work Incentive

Your disability benefit will not be reduced by any work earnings you receive until the combined amount of the benefit and your earnings and other sources of income exceeds 100% of your predisability earnings.

Help With Returning To Work

If a worksite modification would enable you to return to work, we can help your employer make approved modifications by covering some or all of the cost.

How Much Your Coverage Costs

Because this insurance is offered through Fisher Investments, you'll have access to competitive group rates that may be more affordable than those available through individual insurance. You'll also have the convenience of having your premium deducted directly from your paycheck.

Your monthly rate is $0.277 per $10 of weekly benefit.

Use this formula to estimate your semimonthly premium payment:

	x 0.60	x	0.277	÷ 10 =	---	-->
Enter your weekly earnings (cannot be more than $2,309).			This is your rate per $10 of weekly benefit.		This amount is an estimate of how much you'd pay each month.	To get a sense of your semimonthly premium, take your monthly premium, multiply by 12 months and divide by 24 pay periods. This is your semimonthly premium.

Not being able to work also means not being able to earn a paycheck.

As you consider Short Term Disability insurance, think about the expenses you would need to cover if you became disabled:

- Housing costs
- Medical bills
- Utilities
- Car insurance
- Groceries
- Child care costs

To estimate your insurance needs, you'll need to consider your unique circumstances. Use our online calculator at standard.com/disability/needs.

Important Details

Here's where you'll find the details about the plan.

Eligibility Requirements

A minimum number of eligible employees must apply and qualify for the plan before the coverage can become effective. If this requirement is not met, this plan will not become effective.

To be eligible for coverage, you must be:

- Class 3 All full-time members working outside California or Washington
- A regular employee of Fisher Investments actively working at least 30 hours per week
- A citizen or resident of the United States or Canada
- An expatriate or third-country national

Temporary and seasonal employees, full-time members of the armed forces, leased employees and independent contractors are not eligible.

Employee Coverage Effective Date

To become insured, you must:

- Meet the eligibility requirements listed above
- Serve an eligibility waiting period*
- Apply for coverage and agree to pay premium
- Receive medical underwriting approval (if applicable)
- Be actively at work (able to perform all normal duties of your job) on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance

*You are eligible on the first day that follows 30 days as a member, but not before the group policy effective date.

If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.

During your open enrollment period from Nov. 3, 2025 through Nov. 21, 2025, you may enroll in Short Term Disability insurance without answering medical underwriting questions. After this special enrollment period, an extended benefit waiting period may be required.

All late applications (applying 31 days after becoming eligible), requests for coverage increases and reinstatements are subject to medical underwriting approval.

If you elect coverage that requires medical underwriting approval, you will receive an invitation to apply message from The Standard at the work email address we have on record. There will be a link and log on instructions within the email.

Definition of Disability

You will be considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation and
- You suffer a loss of at least 20% in your predisability earnings when working in your own occupation.

You are not considered disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

Exclusions

Subject to state variations, you are not covered for a disability caused or contributed to by any of the following:

- Your committing or attempting to commit an assault or felony or your active participation in a violent disorder or riot
- An intentionally self-inflicted injury, while sane or insane
- War or any act of war (declared or undeclared and any substantial armed conflict between organized forces of a military nature)
- The loss of your professional or occupational license or certification
- An activity arising out of or in the course of any employment for wage or profit

Limitations

Short Term Disability benefits are not payable for any period when you are:

- Eligible to receive benefits under any workers compensation act or similar law
- Not under the ongoing care of a physician in the appropriate specialty, as determined by The Standard
- Not participating in good faith in a plan, program or course of medical treatment or vocational training or education approved by The Standard, unless your disability prevents you from participating
- Confined for any reason in a penal or correctional institution
- Able to work and earn at least 20% of your predisability earnings in your own occupation, but you elect not to

When Your Benefits End

Your Short Term Disability benefits end automatically on the date any of the following occur:

- You are no longer disabled
- Your maximum benefit period ends
- Long term disability benefits become payable to you under a long term disability plan
- Benefits become payable under any other disability insurance plan which you become insured through employment during a period of temporary recovery
- You fail to provide proof of continued disability and entitlement to benefits
- You pass away

Deductible Income

Your benefits will be reduced if you have deductible income, which is income you receive or are eligible to receive while receiving Short Term Disability benefits. Deductible income includes:

- Amounts under unemployment compensation law
- Amounts because of your disability from any other group insurance
- Any disability or retirement benefits received or you are eligible to receive, from your employer's retirement plan
- Amounts under any state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled, plus the earnings you could receive if you work as much as your disability allows
- Earnings or compensation included in your predisability earnings which you receive or are eligible to receive while Short Term Disability benefits are payable
- Amounts due from or on behalf of a third party because of your disability, whether by judgment, settlement or other method
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above

When Your Insurance Ends

Your insurance ends automatically when any of the following occur:

- The date the last period ends for which a premium was paid
- The last day of the month in which your employment terminates
- The date the group policy (or your employer's coverage under the group policy) terminates
- The last day of the month in which you cease to meet the eligibility requirements (insurance may continue for limited periods under certain circumstances)

Group Insurance Certificate

If coverage becomes effective and you become insured, you may access a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events at MyFIRewards.com. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy. The information presented in this summary does not modify the group policy, certificate or the insurance coverage in any way.
